

Publications/Reports
By J. Fred Silva
(coauthors where noted)

Land Use and Fiscal Policy - Can Fiscal Incentives Promote Better Land Use Development?

Green Belt Alliance
November 2006

In Search of Fiscal Responsibility: An Analysis of State Fiscal Choices

New California Network,
July 2006

Understanding California's Property Tax Roll: Regions, Property Types, and Sale Years

Public Policy Institute of California
Tracy Gordon and Fred Silva
September 2003

California's Natural Resource Programs: Where Does the Money Come From and Where Does It Go?

Public Policy Institute of California
July 2002

Elements of a Framework for Collaborative Regional Decision-Making in California

Michael Teitz, J. Fred Silva, and Elisa Barbour
Public Policy Institute of California
September 2001

Growth Challenges and Local Government Finance: A Primer for the Sacramento Valley

Paul G. Lewis and J. Fred Silva
Public Policy Institute of California
September 2001

Local Finance Reform from a Regional Perspective

Public Policy Institute of California
April 2001

The California Initiative Process: Background and Perspective

Public Policy Institute of California
November 2000

Changing the Order of Things: Six Proposals for Local Finance Reform

J. Fred Silva and Paul G. Lewis

Public Policy Institute of California

May 2000

The State-Local Fiscal Relationship in California: A Changing Balance of Power

J. Fred Silva and Elisa Barbour

December 1999

Commentaries on State and Local Finance

By J. Fred Silva

State Budget Effort Needs Major Reform, Sacramento Bee, June 24, 2007.

New California Network Presents Principles for Putting California's Fiscal House in Order Metro Investment report, July 2006

Court of Appeals Forces State to tear up credit cards. Capitol weekly, July 2007

A State Budget Plan to Deceive Taxpayers. San Diego Union Tribune, May 18, 2003.

Make "Balanced Budget" Myth A Reality for State. Los Angeles Times, May 13, 2003.

Half Measure: Governor Davis Budget Shrinks from reforms that California Needs, San Diego Union Tribune, January 26, 2003.

Deficits Harm State-County Relationship: Governor Pushes More Responsibility to Local level. San Jose Mercury News January 19, 2003.

California's Budget Mess: Tax Overhaul is the Best Way to End Ride on Roller Coaster, San Diego Union Tribune, June 2, 2002.

Governor Davis and His State Budget - Hoping for the Best, San Diego Union Tribune January 20, 2002

Local Government and Finance Reform: Déjà vu All Over Again, Western City Magazine November 2000

Romancing the Sales Tax: the System Is Unfair and Irrational - but There is a Solution, San Jose Mercury News August 17, 1997